Overview

California Education Code Section 11300 declares that Middle College High Schools (MCHS) have proven to be a highly effective collaborative effort between local school districts and community colleges. The basic elements of MCHS include:

- A curriculum that focuses on college and career preparation
- A reduced teacher-student ratio
- Flexible scheduling
- Opportunities for experiential internships, work apprenticeships, and community service

In addition, these schools offer students:

- Effective support services
- The opportunity to complete college classes with no fees
